The CLPE's Literacy Library is housed in a Grade II listed building in Southwark. It was refurbished in 2018 after a highly successful crowd-funding campaign and is now a permanent home for over 23,000 children's books. It welcomes visitors from London and beyond for visits and events.

Browsing the collection

CLPE's library is available for reference during CLPE's opening hours. By appointment, CLPE's Library and Literature Development Manager can offer advice and information about books and resources for children and teachers.
